Phonics - daily

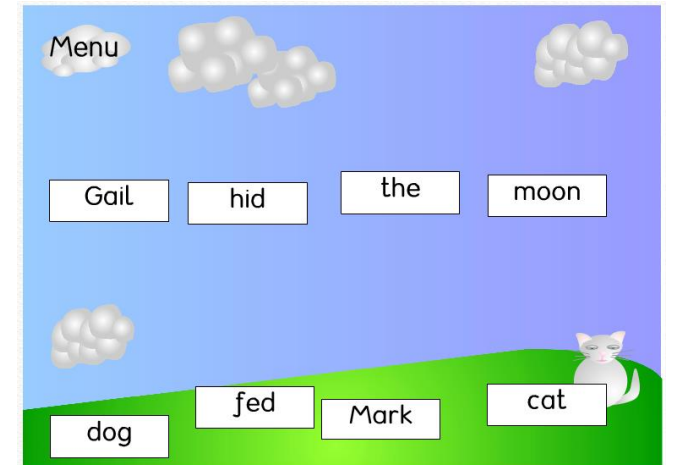

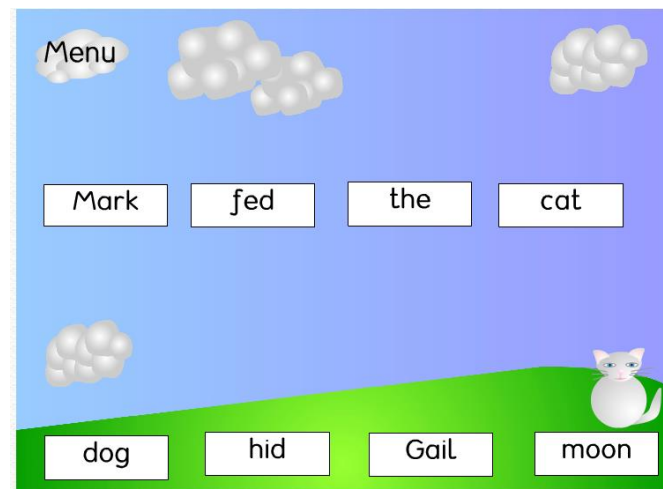

- Today we are going to have a go at changing words in a sentence to create a new one. Click on the link below. There are 10 sentences to choose from. Select any of the sentences. Read through the sentence that it starts with and then read through the additional words at the bottom. You can have some fun with swapping different words. Can you make a silly sentence? Can you make a sentence that makes sense?

Sentence Substitution

- Mark fed the cat.
- The sheep are in the shed.
- You can hear a goat.
- They might meet in the town.
- The shop is on the corner.
- She has worn red shorts.
- He sat down on the carpet.
- She has had lots of good books.
- Join me in the pool.
- This is a good shop for chips.

Literacy

Think about how Farmer Duck and the other animals are feeling throughout the story. What might they be saying? Can you write something to go in each of the speech bubbles?

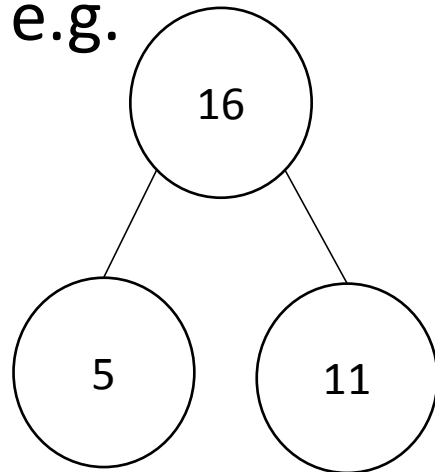

Maths

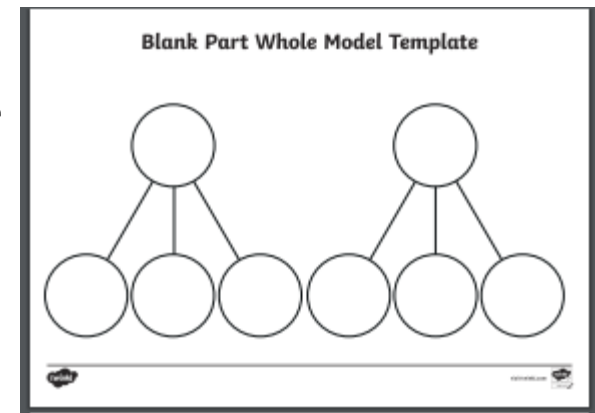

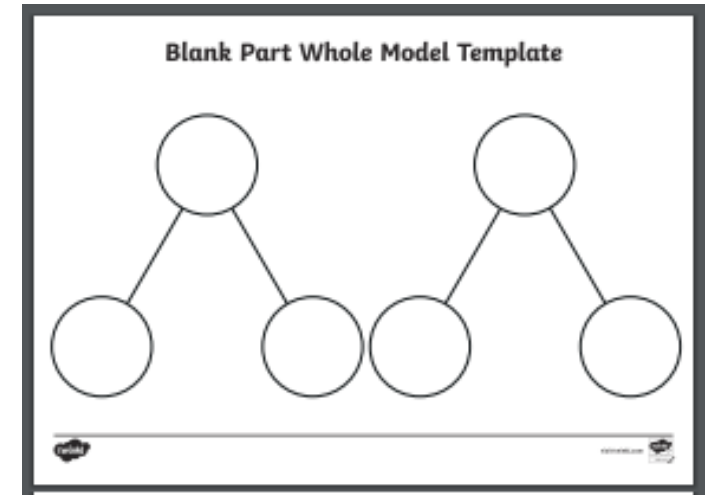

- Today we are looking at using a part-part-whole method. In your packs you should have a laminated blank part-part-whole template.

- Place number 16 in the top section.
- What 2 numbers could you put in the bottom two sections

e.g.

If you are feeling adventurous,
have a go at the 3 part template

additional

- Well done on making it to the end of another week! Something fun to finish off the week.....
- We would love to see you dancing!! So, put on your favourite song, tv show or movie and dance your socks off!! If you're feeling confident, record your dance and send it to our class email address, we would love to see you! Parents, feel free to join in!

Have a lovely weekend everyone and stay safe.

From Miss Kirk and Mrs Lealman.
