

HOME-SCHOOL AGREEMENT

Home-School Agreement of Partnership for:

The staff and governors warmly welcome you and your child into our school's community. We believe in a strong partnership between the school and the parents, in the best interests of pupils, and are in fact legally required to ask you to enter into an Agreement of Partnership.

Parents, like the school, have duties towards the children. We set out these duties below as pledges, and include pledges for your child as well:

Pledges for the Parent:

Having chosen St Hilda's CE (VC) Primary School, for....., I confirm that I accept the school's overall aims and objectives, and -

I will do my best to:

- ensure regular attendance and punctuality, and provide explanations for absence
- support high standards of work and behaviour
- ensure that the school has up-to-date information for emergency contact
- keep the school informed on end-of-day child collection arrangements, and support the code of conduct, which seeks to guarantee a caring, secure and disciplined environment
- let the school know of any problems which might affect my child's work or behaviour
- attend parent-teacher consultations about my/our child's attainment and progress
- encourage my child in homework and other opportunities for home learning
- support school community events
- support all school policies
- respect the school dress code.

I will not post any comments, photographs or videos, positive or negative, about the school, its staff or pupils on any social media.

Pledges for the School:

We will do our best to make you feel welcome and needed at school, and to give you every opportunity to be involved in our teaching and learning programmes. We will give you regular information about your child's progress in acquiring knowledge and skills, and we will give you early notice of any concerns we may have about learning, behaviour or relationships. We will seek in every way to give your child an excellent education, both academic and social.

The School will do its best to:

- set high standards, and provide a quality education for your child
- encourage your child to achieve his or her potential in all aspects of school life
- care for your child as a valued member of the school community, irrespective of gender, race or religion.
- maintain a code of conduct which fosters a caring, secure and disciplined environment
- provide a broad and balanced curriculum, matched to the needs of all
- keep parents informed about any changes in the policies of the school, and about general school matters.

Pledges for the Pupil:

In order for this agreement of partnership between my parent and my school to be successful, I must:

- attend school regularly, on time and ready to learn and take part in school activities
- co-operate with the staff and keep to the school rules
- work to the best of my ability, and allow others to do the same
- strive to make my parent and the school proud of me
- respect the feelings and property of other people in school
- care for the grounds, buildings, furniture, equipment and books provided at school.
